Mobilizing High-Level Support for carbon pricing action on a global scale

Dominik Englert, JPO, World Bank Group | Berlin | November 30th, 2016
Who are we and where do we come from?
From a written statement to leading by example

Voluntary initiative led by the World Bank that brings together leaders from across government, the private sector and civil society around the world to put a price on carbon emissions

What do we want to achieve?

A transformational vision for doubling down twice incl. carbon emissions from the aviation sector covered by a carbon price

Where are we active?

The Coalition’s broad and diverse membership base*

* Country borders or names do not necessarily reflect the World Bank Group’s official position. This map is for illustrative purposes and does not imply the expression of any opinion on the part of the World Bank, concerning the legal status of any country or territory or concerning the delimitation of frontiers or boundaries. Source: http://www.carbonpricingleadership.org
How do we work?

Three work streams pursuing one common strategy

1. Building + Sharing the Evidence Base
2. Mobilizing Business Support
3. Convening Leadership Dialogues

Broadening, deepening and converging carbon pricing schemes worldwide
What does this mean for the aviation sector?

The CPLC’s value proposition to aviation stakeholders

- Mobilize support for carbon pricing in the aviation sector from governments and individual airlines
- Offer a platform for showcasing leadership
- Facilitate discussions on further action by working with key aviation partners

CPLC Plenary Session at Carbon Expo, May 2016
Contact information

Dominik Englert
Junior Professional Officer, Climate Policy Team

T: +1-202-473-9096
M: +1-202-299-7018
E: denglert [at] worldbank.org

1818 H Street NW, Washington, DC 20433 USA